

THEY MAY FIGHT AGAIN.

Remored That Within Ten Days Corbett and Fitzsimmons Will Agree to Fight.

A Slick Swindler in Franklin County—Thanksgiving Day Is Being Generally Observed.

New York, Nov. 25.—It is reported here that Corbett and Fitzsimmons will within ten days sign articles for another fight. Negotiations are now progressing between them.

A Slick One. Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 25.—A slick stranger has been arrested in this county accused of swindling three hundred farmers on a loan scheme.

Quiet On The Potomac. Washington, Nov. 25.—All the departments are closed today for Thanksgiving, and no official business is being done.

ANOTHER CHANCE. May be Taken at the Proposed Constitutional Amendment.

Frankfort, Nov. 25.—The friends of the proposed constitutional amendment that was defeated at the recent election have not lost hope of another vote next year. The constitution prohibits the submission of the same proposed amendment oftener than once in five years, but it is claimed that the recent vote was not in reality "a submission to the people," as contemplated by the constitution, because several counties failed to vote on it at all, and the whole affair, being so irregular that it was practically not a submission, therefore the five-year rule does not obtain. The defeated amendment proposed to allow all cities to adopt and control their own system of municipal taxation.

AT THE POINT OF DEATH.

Mr. W. Courtney Watts Does Not Improve.

Death Is Expected Every Hour at His Home in Smithland.

Col. Chas. H. Webb, of Smithland, was in the city today, and reported that Mr. W. Courtney Watts, who was stricken by paralysis a few days ago, is at the point of death, and dissolution is momentarily expected.

lector of Customs Bidwell a protest, in which it was declared the custom of importing Sumatra tobacco as fillers instead of as wrappers, on which there is a much higher duty, is a common one. The Mutual Protective Association of Cigar Manufacturers has taken the matter in hand, and will formulate a series of recommendations designed to obviate such frauds in future. They will be received by Collector Bidwell and forwarded to Washington.

CALL TO ARLINGTON.

Mr. Marion Smith's Father Is Ill.

Mr. Marion Smith, who has charge of Potter's wagon yard, was today called to Arlington to the bed of his father, Mr. John Smith, better known as "Potato John," who is dangerously ill.

Mr. Smith left on the noon train, and hopes to find his father better.

RAILROAD NOTES.

Victims of the Accident Are Improving.

New Time Card Will Be Here Tomorrow Morning.

Traveling Freight Agent Watkins and Chief Clerk C. C. Cameron, of Louisville, who were injured in the heater explosion yesterday, near DeKoven, rested well at the I. C. hospital today, and are not as badly injured as at first thought.

The heater was a "Baker," and not a "Martin," as a contemporary stated. The explosion of one of these, while they are of rare occurrence, is said to be almost as bad as a boiler explosion.

The others hurt are: J. E. Hanson, of Louisville, was slightly injured.

F. A. Fischer, of Evansville, received some hard knocks.

O. B. Morton, representative of the Morganfield Sun, was thrown down in the wreck with several others.

Mrs. Minnie Sharp, of Hopkinsville, was badly burned, all her clothes being consumed. She was struck in the head by a flying timber.

Miss Loll Ross, of Petersburg, Ind., was slightly hurt.

An investigation showed that the explosion of the steam heater likely resulted from all the water leaking out of the pipes. The walls inclosing the heater were blown into bits. All the glass in the car windows was shattered. Two great holes, directly opposite each other, were forced through the ceiling and floor of the car, just above and below the corner in which the heater was located. The train was delayed at DeKoven about fifteen minutes. The damaged coach was dropped on a side track, and the passengers, about twenty-five in all, rode to their respective destinations in the smoking car.

The new time card on the Illinois Central goes into effect Tuesday, and went to press today. Copies are looked forward to with a great deal of interest by local railroad men.

It is said that the Illinois Central will soon extend its western lines into Omaha.

Railroad men predict that at least 75,000 people will go to the Klondike region next spring, and all of the lines are sending out advertising matter giving the rates and routes. Several railroad companies have been organized to build lines in the gold regions.

A timely discovery was made yesterday at Carbondale, Ill., by Engineer Crutchen, of the St. Louis division of the I. C., and it probably prevented a wreck. The engineer had gotten down to oil the engine when he discovered that fourteen inches of the flange on one of the wheels of the truck were gone. The train was laid out until the necessary changes could be made, which was some time.

Today the Illinois Central shops were closed in order that the employees could more fittingly celebrate the day on which we all tender thanks.

WOMAN BURNED TO DEATH.

Fell in the Fire While in An Epileptic Fit—A Baby Injured.

Clinton, Ky., Nov. 25.—Miss Crane, who lives with her brother, Hiram Crane, on George Lee's farm, near town, had an epileptic fit Tuesday evening, fell in the fire and was burned to death. Hiram Crane's baby was also badly burned before assistance reached it, and may die. Miss Crane was a middle-aged woman, and was housekeeper for her brother, who is a widower.

Governor Bradley and his staff are already making preparations to attend the launching of the battle-ship Kentucky at Newport News, Va., in January. It is probable the ship will be christened by Miss Christine Bradley, the governor's daughter.

DAY OF THANKSGIVING.

Today There Was a General Cessation of Business Throughout the City.

Many a Good Dinner Vanished.—Schools and Merchants Take a Holiday.—Union Services Held.

This has been a dismal Thanksgiving, but it was observed after the usual fashion. A light rain began to fall early in the morning and continued at intervals all day.

The church services as a result were rather poorly attended, most people not caring to venture out in the inclement weather.

The stores did not do a rushing business, and as a result many were closed this afternoon. The banks were closed and the post office was at noon closed for the day.

There were no sessions of any of the courts, and the dullness seemed to be contagious. Special services were held at all the churches, and the inmates of prisons and charitable institutions had cause to rejoice over extra fine dinners.

As stated before, business was practically suspended, and many employees received a half holiday.

Many a gobble's voice was still heard at the dawn, and there were turkeys in abundance to be had. Consequently turkeys were extensively eaten, with those indispensable accompaniments, cranberry sauce and oysters.

The hotels, as usual, offered elaborate menus for their patrons, and the transient trade. Royal spreads were also the order at all the boarding houses.

The postmen made two deliveries this morning and were given a half holiday this afternoon.

The public schools all had a holiday, and the teachers were likewise glad they did not have to work. Everybody seemed thankful, if you looked at it one way, and then, from another standpoint, the day was but little more to the people than any other day.

There will be services tonight at some of the churches, and Thanksgiving will pass out with a hop at the Palmer and several other dances.

The damage suit of Miss May Nicholson, formerly of Kansas, Graves county, against Jeff Sanderson, of Mayfield, was tried in the circuit court in Mayfield yesterday, and the jury awarded the plaintiff $3,500.

The amount sued for was $10,000, and was for alleged slander. There were also two or three damage suits instituted by the same plaintiffs against different persons. The cases have attracted no little attention.

FEVER OFFICIALLY DEAD.

Marine Hospital Service Has Closed Its Work at New Orleans.

New Orleans, Nov. 25.—All efforts are now being bent upon removing the quarantine, and the barrier will be withdrawn sooner than at first announced. Baton Rouge will remove restrictions today, and as Mississippi has been waiting on Louisiana towns it will follow within a day or two. There was another slight frost this morning. The Marine hospital service has closed its work and the fever is officially dead.

FIGHT NOT YET ENDED.

Dingley's Organ Says Silver Was Only Scotched, Not Burned.

Lewiston, Me., Nov. 24.—The Lewiston Evening Journal, the organ of Congressman Nelson Dingley, says, editorially:

"Much as ever true friend of American interests may deprecate it, it may now be regarded as settled that the congressional campaign of next year must be fought out on the line of 1896. When a state like Kentucky turns its back on Carlisle to follow Bryan, and a state like Nebraska, which sees before its eyes in every market the refutation of the Bryan theory that silver and wheat are linked together by the Almighty, still persists in bowing down to the silver idol, it is useless for sound-money men to lose sight of the certainty that the 16 to 1 silver fallacy is only scotched, not burned. Business men may as well prepare to meet this issue next year, when we hope it will be settled forever."

Bob Green, the Moonshiner, Wants to Compromise His Little Misunderstanding With Uncle Sam.

Is Now in Henry County, Tenn., and Yesterday Sent An Emissary to Deputy Marshal LaRue.

Deputy U. S. Marshal LaRue had a strange caller yesterday afternoon. He was leaning back in his easy chair at the government building when a rap came at his door. He cheerfully shouted "come in," and was surprised to see before him, when the door was opened, a handsome, intelligent young man with dark hair and eyes.

The young man appeared at perfect ease, and introduced himself as Jas. Wiggins, of Henry county Tennessee.

He conversed well, and lost no time in stating his mission. He proved to be nothing less than an emissary from Bob Green, the Blood River moonshiner, who is now in hiding in the wilds of Henry county Tennessee, just across the line. He explained in few words that Green desired to compromise with the government.

He is tired of living in perpetual dread of arrest by government authorities, and desires to elude them no more. Hence, he sent a trusted friend all the way to Paducah to confer with the deputy marshal and ascertain if there is not some way of securing absolution from Uncle Sam, in order that he may return to his family near Blood river, in Calloway county. He is willing to compro-

Police After Chicken
Thieves.

A sneak thief entered Kirkpatrick's lodging department over the restau-

way, yesterday afternoon and stole two suits of clothes and some underwear, belonging to Mr. A. G. Stewart, an employee of the Paducah Mill and Elevator company, and two valises of clothing belonging to a carpenter named Morris. Mr. Kirkpatrick met the supposed thief about 1 o'clock in the afternoon, and he said he had gotten up-stairs through mistake. He is believed to have been a tramp.

Officer Jeff Barnhart will have no investigation of the charges preferred against him several weeks ago. He does not desire to again be a member of the police force, and resigns to accept a position with the Paducah Transfer company.

Mr. Frank G. Harlan, Jr., has

early in life.

Today Overseer Hubbard and As-

and all are good, able bodied men.
Last week, however, the chain gang was the largest ever known. There

The city's mule roller was broken this morning on Harrison street near Seventh by sinking half way into a sewerage trench that looked solid but wasn't. A great deal of trouble is being encountered on account of these half filled ditches. A few days ago a huge wagon load of lumber sank into one at Fifth and larrison and had to be unloaded in the street before it could be extricated.

plicants for his place, among them being two or three Graves county men.

Postoffice Inspector A. J. Vickery, of Evansville, was here yesterday and made a trip to Woodville, where he found an irregularity in the affairs of Postmaster W. L. Beck, who resigned some time since, consequently whose removal was not recommended by Inspector Vickery. The shortage amounts to about $200, and was easi-friends. The deficit is said to have been due to an error and not to intent.

The buggy was intact when the sup-

The horse was probably driven off by some miscreant and left in the woods.
Bud Tomlinson's horse and buggy, which are also missing, had not been missioners, at a meeting held at Frankfort yesterday, decline to sell or lease the State's interest in turpikes in Boyle and Jessamine counties. They also decided to call on County Judges to place guards at the gates, and if this is not done the militia will be called out.

There was a turbulent scene in the lower house of the Reichsrath at Vienna. Deputies fighting, swearing, brandishing deadly weapons and challenging each other to fight duels.
The disorder was so great that the President left the house in disgust, after ineffectual efforts to restore the peace.

It is understood that President Mc-Kinley's message to Congress will not

SAD DEATH.

Mr. George P. Grief Died This Morning.

Was 17 Years Old, and Son of Mr. A. S. Grief.

Mr. George P. Grief, the 17-year-old son of Mr. Adrian Grief, died this morning of typhoid fever at his home
three miles from the city on Benton gravel road.

The deceased was a worthy young man, and leaves many friends to mourn his loss. The funeral will take place tomorrow at 9 o'clock from the St. Francis de Sales' church, Rev. Father Jansen officiating, interment at St. Boniface cemetery.

Senator Caffery thinks there is small hope for currency legislation in the present congress. "The house, he says, might pass a bill, but it would be fought by the silver men in the senate. He favors retirement of the greenbacks, but thinks President Mc-Kinley has not manifested the interest the question demands.
